

ENDLESS OPPORTUNITIES

A community-wide program of free educational, social, recreational and volunteer activities for adults age 60+ — sponsored by Jewish Family Service, Temple B'nai Torah & Temple De Hirsh Sinai.

A Tikkun Olam Outing: Food Drive – Food Sort!

Sunday, October 18 • 10:30 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.

What can you do to “Bag Hunger”? You can volunteer to help at the Jewish Family Service Food Sort in October! At this time each year, the Jewish community comes together to fill grocery bags for the only food bank in Washington that meets the needs of local families who keep kosher kitchens.

What better way to do a mitzvah than with your peers for Endless Opportunities. A great day to: Sort Food • Schmooze with your friends • Nosh on all kinds of goodies • Count your blessings while helping others.

Advance registration is required!

Contact Jane Deer-Hileman at (206) 461-3240 or email volunteer@jfsseattle.org

Energy: New Technologies, the Weather & Conservation

Andy Wappler – Puget Sound Energy

Tuesday, October 20 • 10:00 - 11:30 A.M.

Andy Wappler, former weatherman at KIRO, is now Public Relations Manager, Energy Resources, at Puget Sound Energy. Mr. Wappler will update us about PSE's solar and wind technologies, will connect energy and climate change to local weather, and will share simple changes he made in his home to reduce his energy use.

Temple B'nai Torah — NOTE NEW LOCATION with our New Partner!!
15727 NE 4th St. Bellevue

For directions; <http://www.templebnaitorah.org> or call (425) 603-9677

RSVP required by October 16 to Ellen Hendin at (206) 861-3183 or endlessopps@jfsseattle.org

JEWISH FAMILY SERVICE

All events sponsored by Endless Opportunities are open to the public and free of charge.

www.jfsseattle.org