

Off and Running: An American Coming of Age Story

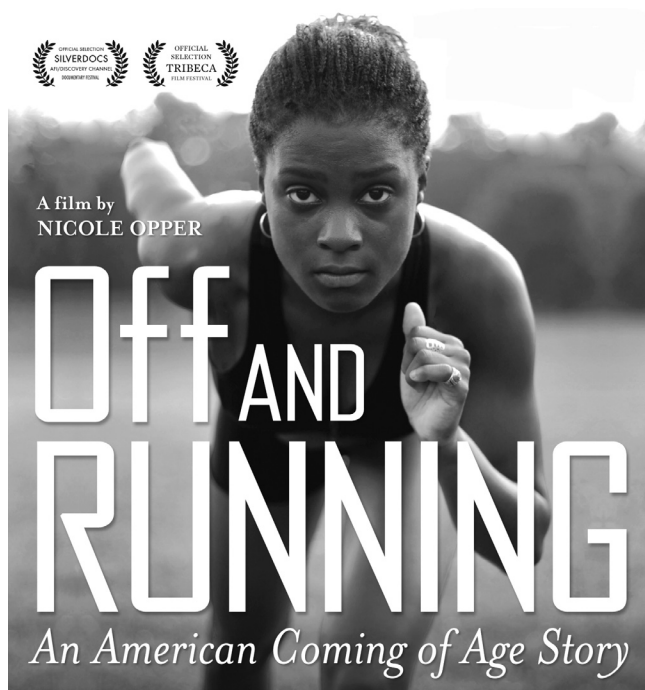

Join us at the Seattle Lesbian and Gay Film Festival for the screening of this award winning movie. In this moving film, Avery, an African American teenager and the adopted daughter of two Jewish lesbian moms in Brooklyn, goes on a journey to uncover her roots. This documentary explores the complex and sometimes controversial aspects of family, transitioning into adulthood and defining self identity.

Sunday, October 25
12:00 Noon

Admiral Theater, 2343 California Ave SW,
Seattle

Catered kosher dessert reception immediately follows the movie.

For more information please contact Emily Harris-Shears at (206) 861-8784, or familylife@jfsseattle.org

JEWISH FAMILY SERVICE