

Free Services for Holocaust Survivors

Jewish Family Service offers social services to eligible Holocaust survivors at no cost, supported by a grant from the Conference on Jewish Material Claims Against Germany.

Who is considered a Holocaust survivor?

Survivors are any Jewish individuals who lived for any amount of time under Nazi domination or fled from the Nazis, whether or not they spent time in a concentration camp.

Who is eligible to receive services?

All survivors may apply to determine if they are eligible. It is not necessary to have a low income to qualify, although assets and income are taken into consideration in the application process.

For details about the program, qualifications, and instructions to apply for yourself or a family member, please call JFS Older Adult Services at:

(206) 861-3164 (English) or

(206) 861-8787 (Russian)

What services are provided?

- Care management
- In-home care
- Limited cleaning services
- Emergency financial assistance for rent, hearing aids, glasses, and other needs
- Dental services
- Legal services
- Russian language socialization programming

