

Know Your Rights and Be Prepared

Community members and allies should be aware of their legal rights before Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

Download or order “Know Your Rights” pocket guides.

These two pocket guides can help people assert their rights and protect themselves and their communities from ICE enforcement and the FBI.

For hard copies of these guides, email tpugh@aclu-wa.org.

“Know Your Rights When Stopped by Police or Immigration Agents”

In this guide, learn about rights and what to do when encountering ICE, the FBI, or other law enforcement or government officials. Download the guide in English, Spanish, Somali, Mandarin, Vietnamese, Marshallese, or Chuukese.

“Know Your Rights When Stopped by the FBI”

In this guide, learn about rights and what to do when encountering the FBI, who often makes informal “knock and talk” visits to immigrant or refugee households. Download the guide in English and Arabic.

Make a family plan.

You or refugee or immigrant families with children should have a plan beforehand should a parent be detained. Download this Legal Counsel for Youth and Children Immigrant Safety Plan packet, which contains the following resources, templates, and more:

- Creating a family plan
- Checklist of important documents
- Legal counsel resources
 - Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) – (206) 587-4009
 - Colectiva Legal del Pueblo - (206) 931-1514
 - Kids in Need of Defense - (206) 338-3227

Take note of additional resources.

- Locate community members who have been arrested by ICE at this website: ICE Detention Lookup.
- If you or others are detained by ICE, or you witness ICE activity, call or have your family call the Washington Immigrant Solidarity Network (WAISN) Deportation Defense Hotline to report the raid, protect others, and find resources at 1-844-RAID-REP/1- (844)-724-3737
- Visit the WAISN Resource Finder to find specific resources.
